

FOR GOOD CONTENT MARKETING, WE NEED CONNECTIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS.

Content gets you found. Relationships make you remembered, trusted, and chosen.
The journey from a stranger to a supporter starts with value and grows with connection.

CONNECTION = DISCOVERY

When someone finds you
for the first time.

Examples:

- Reading your blog post
- Seeing your LinkedIn post
- Finding your website on Google
- Watching your video
- Seeing your content cited by AI

At this stage,
people know
you exist.

VS

RELATIONSHIP = TRUST

When someone chooses
to stay connected with you.

Examples:

- Following your content regularly
- Returning to your website
- Engaging with your posts
- Subscribing to your newsletter
- Recommending your content to others

At this stage,
people trust
you.

THE CONTENT MARKETING JOURNEY

HELPFUL CONTENT

Provide value.
Solve problems.
Share insights.

CONNECTION

People discover your content and
get to know you.

REPEATED VALUE

Consistent, helpful
content keeps them
coming back.

TRUST

They see your
expertise, reliability,
and authenticity.

RELATIONSHIP

A deeper bond is
built through time,
value, and consistency.

BUSINESS RESULTS

Customers, advocates,
referrals, and
long-term growth.

Content creates connections. Value builds relationships. Relationships drive growth.

WHAT MOST MARKETERS GET WRONG

They focus only on traffic and impressions (connections).

But traffic alone doesn't build a business.

THE REAL GOAL IS TO TURN:

That journey is relationship building.

A BETTER CONTENT MARKETING FORMULA

CONNECTION
Get discovered.

CONSISTENCY
Deliver value
over time.

TRUST Prove you can be relied on.

RELATIONSHIP
Earn loyalty.
Drive growth.

RELATIONSHIPS LEAD TO:

- ✓ Repeat visits
- ✓ Brand authority
- ✓ Higher engagement
- ✓ Referrals
- ✓ Conversions
- ✓ Long-term growth

People don't just buy what you do.
They buy why you do it and how you make them feel.
That's the power of connection and relationship.
